SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

Doesn't Like Tips—George W. P. Hunt has received an interesting letter from Dr. A. F. Malsch, who is in Vienna, Austria. The doctor says that while he is very pleasantly located in the Austrian capital, there are several customs of the land, to which he has not yet become accustomed, especially the constant tipping. Everything is cheap over there, but after the tips are added, it costs about as much to live as it does in Arizona.

Council Did Not Meet—The city council was to have met last evening, but owing to the big attraction of the Elks at the Dreamland theater, the council postponed their own show.

Wed Wednesday Evening—J. M. Swearing and Miss Lennie Greer, both well known young people residing north of Globe, were united in marriage Wednesday evening. A bridal party composed of relatives and friends of the contracting couple drove up from the home of the bride for the wedding and returned after the ceremony.

Kissell Improving—William Kissell, the miner who was found unconscious in the mountains west of the city several weeks ago and suffering severely from exposure, is rapidly recovering at the Old Dominion hospital. Kissell wandered barefooted from his camp this side of Gibson's while temporarily demented. He will be out in a few days completely restored in mind and body.

Sullenger Home—S. F. Sullenger, who underwent an operation for appendicitis recently at the Old Dominion hospital, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home on Nob hill. He expects to be out in a few days.

Will Not Remain Away—Clarence P. Jacobs, who recently disposed of his interest in the Globe jewelry company, will not leave Globe to remain permanently as has been reported. He expects to go to San Francisco for a few weeks' visit, after which he will return to Globe to look after business interests which he still has here.

Caught Wrong Men—Yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff Sturgis arrested two Mexicans, who gave the names of Urbano Luzano and Jose Salgado, for defrauding the government by false representations. They were accused of drawing the paychecks of two other Mexicans employed by the government at Roosevelt. Paymaster Bodie arrived here soon after and after taking a look at the men declared that they were not the ones who got the coin.

Globe Lady Injured—Word was received in the city last night to the effect that Miss Georgia Coalsen of the Kinney hotel had been painfully injured in an automobile accident at El Paso, where Miss Coalsen has been visiting for a number of days past. When the accident occurred Miss Georgia was en route to the depot in an automobile. In some manner the machine was overturned and the Globe lady received a badly sprained ankle and wrist and a number of painful body bruises. She was taken to a hospital where she will be confined for a number of days.

Conditions Good in Valley—W. W. Pace, manager of the Big Six company at Thatcher, and Oscar Webster, manager of the Producers Milling company of the same city, are in the city transacting business. In an interview last night Mr. Pace stated that conditions were rapidly righting themselves in the valley and that by the opening of spring everything could be in a flourishing condition again. He said that the recent slump had caught the merchants overloaded with goods and the hay dealers with too much alfalfa on hand, but that markets were again opening and the outlook was much brighter. The farmers are busy preparing for their usual spring work.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

H. W. Bodie of the government reclamation service is in the city from Roosevelt.

A. W. Sydnor has returned from New York, where he spent several weeks on business.

Sheriff J. H. Thompson made a trip to Wheatfield yesterday on official business and returned last evening.

A. T. Hammons and A. G. Smith, who have been at Safford for several days on mining business, returned home last evening.

Ed Shaw, the well known traveling salesman, arrived in the city last evening from Bisbee and Douglas. He reports business good in the southern counties.

C. E. Mills and H. S. Van Gorder returned to Morenci yesterday morning after attending the meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Gila Valley bank.

Al Stamm, "the man with the laugh," has returned from a six weeks' absence in various Arizona cities. He expects to remain in Globe permanently, as he declares this the best city in the territory.

If a cough gets into your system it acts on every muscle and fibre of the body and makes you ache all over. It especially affects the intestines and makes you constipated, so in order to get rid of a cold thoroughly and without delay you should not take anything that will tend to constipate. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by Hanna's drug store, 228 Broad St.

SLEEPS UNDER CAR
LOSES ONE FOOT

Young Mexican Has Rude
Awakening at Old Dominion Smelter.

Bortovian Popia, eighteen years old, is in the Old Dominion hospital with one foot off and the other badly crushed, because he went to sleep under a car at the Old Dominion smelter. A switch engine came along and moved the car enough to cause it to pass over both of Popia's feet, hence his present stay at the hospital. The right foot was in such bad shape that the company physicians were compelled to amputate, but the right foot will probably be saved.

The accident occurred Wednesday morning at about 4 o'clock and why the young man should have chosen that hour for a nap under a car is a mystery.

WAS MESSENGER TO JEFF DAVIS

After seventy years of life filled with adventure and danger, life spent in doing things which called for taking that life constantly into his hands, Thomas Clegg passed away Monday at the Maricopa county hospital.

An Englishman by birth, Clegg came to this country with his parents when but five years old. Just what he did up to the time of the Civil War no one knows, but early in the great conflict he was employed by Jefferson Davis, president of the southern confederacy, as a special messenger. Many an order to Lee and other Confederate generals was delivered by Clegg. Necessarily he was constantly in danger while engaged in this occupation. Though he never talked a great deal, friends have often seen his eyes glisten as he recalled the time when he carried messages for the famous Jeff Davis.

How long he remained in the employ of Jeff Davis is not known. He evidently gained quite a reputation as a nervous and trustworthy messenger. Sometime, presumably about the end of the Civil war, he went to Mexico, and there became a messenger for the Archduke Maximilian. He remained with Maximilian until the Duke fell into the hands of his enemies and was shot. Clegg, however, escaped with his life and came back to the United States.

His career from that time up to a few years ago is known to a great many westerners. He was once a scout under Buffalo Bill and distinguished himself as an Indian fighter. The redskins wounded him on many occasions, once or twice nearly ending his life. It is not known whether he was ever wounded while carrying the messages for Jeff Davis and Maximilian, but if he was he never spoke of it.

For several years past he has been living with the family of G. W. Brown, seven miles from Phoenix. He was very reticent and the few facts related above are all that he ever told about himself. He once remarked that he had a brother in New York, whom he had not seen for twenty years. However, he was not sure that his brother might not be dead by this time.

A short time ago he became ill from a complication of diseases usually attending old age and was removed to the county hospital, where he passed away.

Mr. Brown seems to have been Clegg's closest friend here and it falls upon him to endeavor to locate the brother of the dead man if he is still in the land of the living.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb". Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Palace and Globe Pharmacies.
